6 X 9 Artistic Cover, 120 Wide Ruled Pages Lunar Astrology Johnny Means used to make a living. Now he has a Life. Sick and tired of the revolving door, the same old jobs, the same feeling of faceless anonymity at work, the mind numbing grind, Johnny is in the mood for mutiny. And he's going to do something about it. He wants his revolution. He's had his wake up call, and now he's going to send a message to The Man. With the rawness and grit of an untreated wound Year of the Rooster explores one man's powerlessness and his passage to the heights of power. It taps into the psyche of the masses. The boredom, the pressure to consume, ignorance of the subconscious... and the lies we tell ourselves to distract from the ugliness of reality. Year of the Rooster dismantles the illusions of security, predictability and anonymity that pacify humankind. It exposes common incarcerating binds of society. Greed. The Cubicle Effect. Our contentious relationship with money. Stalked by the unbearable heaviness of Being, Johnny Means hunts his own prey: The Meaning of Life.

The Rooster in 2017: Your Chinese Horoscope Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

Year of the Rooster is mostly a short story collection recorded from the memories of a combat veteran of the Vietnam War. The Stories are mingled with present day thoughts and actions so as to show how recollections [recollections] of war are triggered and intrude into the lives of some soldiers for decades after they leave the war zone. The opening paragraphs describe the old veteran relaxing in Hawaii, living his idea of what being a tourist should be and thinking nonsense. Then, he is jolted into the past that he has needed to forget every day since 1969. The Tale of Rickshaw Rooster The Year of the Rooster Tales from the Chinese Zodiac

"The mayor of the noisy city of La Paz institutes new laws forbidding all singing, but a brave little rooster decides he must sing, despite the progressively severe punishments he receives for continuing to crow. The silenced populace, invigorated by the rooster's bravery, ousts the tyrannical mayor and returns their city to its free and clamorous state"--
