I have always been
under the impression that children were only removed from their families when in severe and life threatening
abusive situations.
Never did I think for a moment that the very people who the public

put their trust in are actually guilty of gross negligence and outrageous behavior far worse than some of the reasons why children may be removed from their families. To top it all off there are no penalties for DCF workers who remove children without cause. My child was kept from me for absolutely no reason, totally without justification nor my knowledge and tossed in a system for almost 3 years by the Department of Children and Families (DCF) that failed to abide by their own statutes, internal procedures, policies, rules and regulations. During this travesty of justice my child suffered lifelong visible scars and irreparable damage. I was totally oblivious to what could and would take place in my child's life as well as my families and my life. Upon feeling compelled to write this book I am in hope that my story will enlighten other parents that maybe, by no fault of their own, are faced with a similar situation...I am in hope that my story will somehow inspire changes to be made in a now very broken system, a system that seems to be totally out of control....

The Model Rules of Professional Conduct
provides an up-to-date
resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer
malpractice cases,
disciplinary actions,
disqualification issues,
sanctions questions
and much more. In this volume, black-letter
Rules of Professional Conduct are followed
by numbered
Comments that explain
each Rule's purpose
and provide suggestions for its practical application.
The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review
those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts.
