 The Group Mary Mccarthy
 The Group is the best-known novel of American writer Mary McCarthy. It made New York Times Best Seller list in 1963 and remained there for almost two years. In 1966, United Artists released a film adaptation of the novel directed by Sidney Lumet. The novel touched on controversial topics for its time, such as free love, contraception, abortion, lesbianism, and mental illness, and was banned in Australia, Italy and Ireland.
 The Group (novel) - Wikipedia
 Mary McCarthy's The Group is a sharply-pointed satire of upper-class New England society which follows the post-college lives of eight Vassar graduates, class of '33. Helena was registered for Vassar at birth; Pokey forged her mother's signature on her college application in defiance of the family tradition of "being dim-witted and vain of it."
