Daily Reflections for Recovering People
John Wiley & Sons
Renowned for the beauty and simplicity of his teachings, Ajahn Chah was Thailand's best-known meditation teacher. His charisma and wisdom influenced many American and European seekers, and helped shape the American Vipassana community. This collection brings together for the first time Ajahn Chah's most powerful teachings, including those on meditation, liberation from suffering, calming the mind, enlightenment and the 'living dhamma'. Most of these talks have previously only been available in limited, private editions and the publication of Food for the Heart therefore represents a momentous occasion: the hugely increased accessibility of his words and wisdom. Western teachers such as Ram Dass and Jack Kornfield have extolled Chah's teachings for years and now readers can experience them directly in this book.

Removing Character Defects - Steps

Six and Seven Simon and Schuster Children in today's world are inundated with information about who to be, what to do and how to live. But what if there was a way to teach children how to manage priorities, focus on goals and be a positive influence on the world around them? The Leader in Me is that programme. It's based on a hugely successful initiative carried out at the A.B. Combs Elementary School in North Carolina. To hear the parents of A. B Combs talk about the school is to be amazed. In 1999, the school debuted a programme that taught The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People to a pilot group of students. The parents reported an incredible change in their children, who blossomed under the programme. By the end of the following year the average end-of-grade scores had leapt from 84 to 94. This book will launch the message onto a much larger platform. Stephen R. Covey takes the 7 Habits, that have already changed the lives of millions of people, and shows how children can use them as they develop. Those habits -- be proactive, begin with the end in mind, put first things first, think win-win, seek to understand and then to be understood, synergize, and sharpen the saw -- are critical skills to learn at a young age and bring incredible results, proving that it's never too early to teach someone how to live well.

Revealing a step-by-step pathway for living, this beloved classic that provides powerful yet timeless lessons in personal change celebrates its 15th anniversary with this edition that features a new Foreword and Afterword by the author.

The Daily 5 Simon and Schuster

An inspirational and practical guide to leadership from the New York Times–bestselling author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People. Covey, named one of Time magazine's 25 Most Influential Americans, is a renowned authority on leadership, whose insightful advice has helped millions. In his follow-up to The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, he poses these fundamental questions: How do we as individuals and organizations survive and thrive amid tremendous change? Why are efforts to improve falling so short in real results? How do we unleash the creativity, talent, and energy within ourselves and others? Is it realistic to believe that balance among personal and professional life is possible? The key to dealing with the challenges that we face is to identify a principle-centered core within ourselves and our institutions. In Principle-Centered Leadership, Covey outlines a long-term, inside-out approach to developing people and organizations. Offering insights and guidelines on how to apply these principles both at work and at home, Covey posits that these steps will lead not only to an increase in productivity and quality of work, but also to a new appreciation of personal and professional relationships as we strive to enjoy a more balanced, rewarding, and ultimately more effective life. "There seems to be no limit to the number of writers offering answers to the great perplexities of life. Covey, however, is the North Star in this field . . . without hesitation, strongly recommended." —Library Journal

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son to us," John 3:16. Drawing from Scripture, literature, and personal experience, Fr. Rolheiser shows God's love in such abundance that our souls yearn for that love. God lies inside us as an invitation that fully respects our freedom, never overpowers us, but also never goes away. The invitation lies there precisely like a baby lying helpless in the straw, gently beckoning us, but helpless in itself to make us pick it up. For each day of Advent through the Octave of Christmas, Advent Daybreaks provides an opportunity for prayer and reflection on the coming of the messiah, the word made flesh.

Living THE SEVEN HABITS OF HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL PEOPLE Every Day Daily Reflections for Highly Effective People Living THE SEVEN HABITS OF HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL PEOPLE Every Day Shine the Light of Truth on Shame is a refreshingly unique book that provides an honest, thorough, easily understood, and insightful program to release us from the pain of shame. Author Barb Tonn shares from a deep well of tools she developed working as a psychotherapist, who for over thirty years specialized in healing shame. The book will appeal to a variety of people: those who have heard of shame and are interested in learning more about it; those who are already working to heal their shame, anxiety, depression, bipolar disorder, PTSD, abuse, and adult children issues while in therapy or utilizing self-help and personal growth tools; counselors; people in recovery from addictions; and those who are mindfully and spiritually changing the direction of their lives from one of war to one of peace. The book takes a deep dive into where shame is anchored in our lives and world and then presents solutions for creating a new paradigm for living that is held in love instead of shame. It provides powerful techniques for healing shame, personal stories to demonstrate the shame/rage loop and how to release from it, and 365 days of reflections and meditations to help release us from the grip of shame. The daily format provides interventions that can easily be integrated into one's daily life, a step at a time. As readers move through the year of daily interventions, they are brought more deeply into the healing of shame. By day 365 readers have a working program for intervening on shame that can be easily utilized for the rest of their lives. Author Barb Tonn has been in recovery from shame and addictions for close to forty years. She is able to address many of the needs of the recovering and 12-Step community, as well as the community at large. She speaks to many of the needs of recovering individuals that often go unaddressed and greatly impact the quality of their recovering lives. The author deeply believes that unaddressed shame is the greatest cause of relapse in people healing from eating disorders, sexual addiction, substance abuse, codependency, gambling addiction, alcoholism, workaholism and other addictions. This unresolved shame prevents the individual from achieving the peace that is possible and desirable in recovery. Shine the Light of Truth on Shame is a powerful journey out of shame and into peace. The author shares her 30 years of experience working with clients in healing their shame as well as 40 years of healing. Her personal sharing helps the reader feel the love and peace that is possible when shame is brought into healing.
