The Blood and the Glory
 Bloomsbury Publishing
 The aim of this book is to examine the transformation of the geography of China in the years since the start of China's policy of reform and opening-up in 1978, as seen through the eyes of Chinese geographers.

 Throughout that period, Chinese geographers have studied these environmental, economic, political and cultural processes closely, drawing on sources that are far from easy to access, and have published their results in Chinese. Much of this research has underpinned the Chinese government's assessment of policies and the policy choices at different levels, yet it is not well known outside of China. This volume deals with aspects of the socio-economic geography of China's transformation including its changing relations with the rest of the world, although it also deals with the impact of China's development path on the country's ecological systems. Each chapter deals with aggregate trends and specific cases to show the ways in which the particular characteristics of China's economic and social order (economic organization, political system and cultural model and values) have shaped and are shaped by its geography.

This textbook explores the relationship between the natural world and psychological well-being. It draws upon a wide context, brings the experience of our existence as part of the wider natural world to the forefront throughout, and relates it to therapy practice in mainstream settings.

The Blood & The Glory is a no nonsense, no hole's barred, no skirting around the issue, no fear of what others may say, straight shooting book about the essence of Christianity. It may not meet the approval of some Christians, or Churches who want a motivational and uplifting message on a Sunday, before coffee and socialising with friends. It certainly will not meet the approval of those who sadly, and misguidedly, think that there are many ways to God, and that all paths eventually merge. It will not sit well with the many who are fence sitters, ambivalent, undecided or out and out atheist, as it will challenge, and shake up weak and flaky faith, and may well pierce through the conscience and hearts of the professing unbeliever. This book is designed to be offensive; the blood of Jesus is the offense of the cross and does away with all legalism and pious religiosity. Only by faith are you saved through grace, and not by good works in case anyone should boast. The blood sacrifice of Jesus Christ atoned for all sin for those who repent and believe. The blood of Jesus took away all the power of sin, death, hell and the grave and put Satan on the run with time running out. The blood is the power of life within us and without it there is no life. How much more then, is the power of the blood of Jesus, the Son of God. His blood not only redeemed us from sin, but is the most powerful weapon for believers against all the powers of the kingdom of darkness. When we plead the blood, demons and devils flee. The blood of Jesus speaks a better word (Hebrews 12: 24). The blood of Jesus, the most precious of all, was freely shed for the salvation of mankind and avails for all who believe. The blood of Jesus used to be preached as a priority, in earlier days of the Church. The 'old timers' knew the power that could be invoked, and the healing and miracles that followed. Many of the songs sung in churches would include the power in the blood. This subject matter, the true essence of Christianity, seems sadly lacking in many church's today, with preference given instead to motivational feel-good messages. This book, however, will focus entirely on the quintessential Christian message of the blood of Jesus Christ, with no provisos or excuses made. This book will no doubt offend many people, get over it. I intend to present an unadulterated message of The Way, The Truth and The Life, the embodiment of Jesus Christ, the crucial message of the Blood and the Glory. We now understand that blood is life, the life of every living being is encompassed within the blood. If someone has disease of some kind in their blood it will quickly affect the whole body and the person will become sick. Blood is an intricate transport and communication system, keeping all parts informed, healthy, nourished and protected. Jesus blood, unlike any other, is all powerful and provides a divine covering for our sin. This has been demonstrated throughout the Bible and I have given evidence of this throughout the book. The shedding of blood in the Old Testament was pleasing to God as an atonement for the sins of men, as it was symbolic of the sacrifice Jesus was destined to make, as a one-time atonement. Man's sin continued throughout Bible history and the sacrifice of animals was no longer enough. The next part of God's master plan was soon to be required. Jesus was born, and came to earth for a very short time. For 33 years, God in the flesh, walked the earth in preparation for a 3-year period of ministry, and to ultimately give His life for the love of mankind to reconcile all of them to God.

This book discusses the role of public-private partnerships (PPPs) in global transportation infrastructure. Seen as a way to provide vital services in an era of shrinking government budgets, public-private partnerships have become an increasingly important part of travel infrastructure worldwide. This book describes and analyzes the structure of various models of PPPs in various countries, evaluating their effectiveness, and drawing policy implications for future use. Written by leading international researchers and practitioners in the transportation field, each chapter is a case study on the adoption, implementation, and outcome of transportation services in different municipalities. Taken together, these diverse case studies provide an integrated framework for evaluating and using PPPs. Providing rigorous empirical analysis of PPPs in transportation, this volume will be of interest to researchers in public administration, political science, and economics as well as practitioners and policymakers involved in establishing and monitoring PPPs in transportation.
