The Workshop for Morality Open Bridge Publications Sdn. Bhd. "This monumental study embraces linguistic and archaeological investigations, practical knowledge weaving, palaeobiology, and other arcane sciences to trace the development of cloth" (Washington Post Book World). "A fascinating study of early textile traditions in the Aegean and adjacent parts of Europe, North Africa, and the Near East". --Lynn S. Teague, Spin-Off.

 Part memoir and part philosophical look at why we travel, filled with stories of Matt Kepnes' adventures abroad, an exploration of wanderlust and what it truly means to be a nomad. "Matt is possibly the most well-traveled person I know...His knowledge and passion for understanding the world is unrivaled, and never fails to amaze me." —Mark Manson, New York Times bestselling author of *The Subtle Art of Not Giving a F*ck*
 Ten Years a Nomad is New York Times bestselling author Matt Kepnes' poignant exploration of wanderlust and what it truly means to be a nomad. Part travel memoir and part philosophical look at why we travel, it is filled with aspirational stories of Kepnes' many adventures. New York Times bestselling author of How to Travel the World on $50 a Day, Matthew Kepnes knows what it feels like to get the travel bug. After meeting some travelers on a trip to Thailand in 2005, he realized that living life meant more than simply meeting society's traditional milestones, such as buying a car, paying a mortgage, and moving up the career ladder. Inspired by them, he set off for a year-long trip around the world before he started his career. He finally came home after ten years. Over 500,000 miles, 1,000 hostels, and 90 different countries later, Matt has compiled his favorite stories, experiences, and insights into this travel manifesto. Filled with the color and perspective that only hindsight and self-reflection can offer, these stories get to the real questions at the heart of wanderlust. Travel questions that transcend the basic "how-to," and plumb the depths of what drives us to travel — and what extended travel around the world can teach us about life, ourselves, and our place in the world. Ten Years a Nomad is for travel junkies, the travel-curious, and anyone interested in what you can learn about the world when you don't have a cable bill for a decade or spend a month not wearing shoes living on the beach in Thailand.

"This ethnographic study attempts to portray Pesantren Daarut Tauhid in Bandung, Java, in terms of its emergence, its nature and structure, and the role it plays in the reinforcement of Islamic morality in a Muslim community. The initial stages and the foundation of the pesantren are first discussed in order to understand a number of events which were crucial to the emergence of the pesantren. The thesis then examines the nature of the leader and his followers and the structure of interrelationships between them. Next, the practice of Islam at the pesantren is discussed in order to consider its creativity in expressing Islam. Finally, the thesis discusses the ways by which the pesantren reinforces religious morality."--Provided by publisher.

In terms of design, scale, and blending of ecological and aesthetic function, Amsterdam's seventeenth-century Canal District is a European marvel. Its survival for four centuries is a testament to its ingenuity, reflected in its designation as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2010. The Canal District today is an extraordinary example of resilient historic design and cultural heritage in a living city, but it is not without present-day challenges: in recent years, its urban ecology has become subject to severe pressures of global tourism and supergentrification. This edited volume brings together seventeen reputable scholars to debate questions about the origins, evolution, and future of the Canal District. With these differing approaches and perspectives, on the Canal District, the contributions render a collection where the whole is much more than the sum of the parts. The book breaks new ground in our understanding of the District's historic design, its evolution over four hundred years, and the fundamental issues in future-facing strategies and policies towards the future. While the main focus is clearly on Amsterdam, the discussions in this collection have an important bearing on broader questions of urban historic preservation elsewhere, and on questions about enduring urban design.

Selatan Thailand bermula dari wilayah Chumpon hingga ke wilayah Songkhla yang bersempadan dengan Malaysia. Kawasan ini sangat terkenal dengan pantai dan pulau-pulau yang indah. Di sebelah barat menghadap Laut Andaman, manakala di sebelah timur terletak Teluk Thailand (Gulf of Thailand). Sebut sahaja Thailand, pasti akan teringatkan makanan yang sedap, shopping dengan harga murah dan keindahan pulau di Phuket dan Krabi. Sebenarnya ada banyak lagi tempat yang anda belum teroka. Jika sudah tahu Thailand terkenal dengan syurga makanan, ke mana kita harus pergi mencuba masakan-masakan sedap ini? Jenis masakan apa yang wajib kita cuba? Tempat tinggal di Thailand bukan satu masalah, tetapi di mana yang paling sesuai? Buku ini akan menjawab persoalan itu. Sediakan wang dan tandakan cuti di kalendar sahaja.

Buku ini sangat menarik karena ditulis oleh beberapa penulis yang memiliki latar belakang keilmuan yang berbeda-beda. Dengan latar belakang tersebut maka memberikan curahan kisah yang khas serta goresan pena yang unik masing-masing penulis. Seperti buku sebelumnya (Chayen di Negeri Gajah Putih 1 & 2), buku ini berupaya untuk memberikan semangat kepada para mahasiswa Indonesia yang kuliah di Thailand untuk terus berkarya dalam bentuk tulisan. Buku ini secara spesial kami persembahkan kepada Negara Kesatuan Republik Indonesia yang merayakan ulang tahun ke 71. Semoga hasil karya ini menjadi sebuah momentum bagi bangsa Indonesia dalam menorehkan sejarah pengalaman warga negaranya yang sementara menempuh pendidikan di Thailand. Kelak, buku ini akan menjadi catatan yang layak untuk dijadikan sebagai bahan rujukan masyarakat Indonesia yang ada di Thailand dan yang akan ke Thailand.

So you want to be a dentist? Do you know what it will take to succeed in dentistry today? With over 30 years of experience in dentistry, the authors have unique and honest insight into what it takes to be a successful dentist. Dental school teaches you how to perform the dental treatment, but it doesn't teach you how to run a dental practice, manage a full staff and patients, or negotiate the financial responsibilities that are involved--to name only a few. This book will give you a head start on the competition. This book is a must read for the pre-dental student and the dental school student looking to not just be a dentist, but be a successful dentist. The authors have over 30 years of combined experience as practicing dentists. All three took different routes on their way to dental school and then into private practice giving them a unique perspective into the various aspects of dentistry.

Life and Death in a Global Gay World Henry Holt and Company

Aceh has become best known in our times for its twin disasters—the worst earthquake and tsunami of modern times in December 2004, and a long-running separatist conflict that rent Indonesia for most of its independent history. Although this book emerged from the process of recovery from those traumas, it turns the spotlight on a more positive and neglected claim Aceh has on our attention, as the Southeast Asian maritime state that most successfully and creatively maintained its independent place in the world until 1874. Like Burma, Siam and Vietnam, all better protected by geography, Aceh has its own story to tell of a unique culture struggling for survival through the European colonial era.
