 1 Corinthians 16:13-14 -- "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity." The first word we find here in 1 Corinthians 16:13 is the word "watch." Paul gave a stern warning to the church in Corinth because there were "many adversaries" lurking behind every corner. May I suggest to you today that there is an adversary that is far greater in power and influence than we could ever imagine. First Peter 5:8 challenges us, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:" Satan wants nothing more than to steer you away from God's will for your life. He is so subtle and deceitful, and he is looking for every opportunity he can to "devour" your future. 10 pages Downloadable to any device Great for Sunday School, sermon series, or personal study

 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (1 Peter 5:8) In order to be sober and vigilant, scripture tells us we need to know our enemy. The more we know about the wiles of the devil and his minions, the easier it is to defeat them. The Bible teaches us how to live godly lives. It's the devil's job to interfere and to crush the things of God in our lives. Jesus was the firstborn of many brethren. What made Him different? Jesus was an empty vessel that the anointing of God could flow through. Jesus never performed a single miracle. He said himself in John 5:30, "I can of Mine own self do nothing; because I seek not Mine own will, but the will of the Father which sent Me." It was the anointing of God that poured through Jesus that spoke the words of His Father, healed the sick, and raised the dead. After Jesus died, the born-again new creatures in Christ became the brethren. We, now, are the vessels that the anointing flows through. Because of this anointing, the devil hates the born-again Christian. His attacks are unrelenting, but as Jesus said in John 17:14-15, "I have given them Thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that Thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil." I pray that this book can give the reader the knowledge needed to rise above the trappings of the world. God has so much more planned for his people in the Spirit! Step out!

Be sober; be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Nkjv If the devil is walking about seeking whom he may devour, it therefore means the devil is not omnipresence. The only authority that has that attribute is God. The devil does not have the power to devour everybody most especially the born again child of God, he only has power on those that gives him the privilege. But let me sound a note of warning to the believers, the bible says "the devil moves around like a roaring lion", he is not the real roaring lion, but just mimicking the real lion. We all know that Jesus is the real roaring lion; he is the lion of the tribe of Judah. Revelation 5:5, Hosea 11:10 The devil is moving like the real lion, but his mission is not to bless, to protect, to prosper and to give abundant life like the real lion, his mission is to kill, to steal, to destroy and to devour. JOHN 10:10 We should not be deceived, the devil also has moved into many churches, behaving like the lion of the tribe of Judah, but his aim is to drag many to hell. 2Corinthians 11:14 That is the reason the bible is advising us, Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1Corinthians 10:12 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. 2 Peter 3:17 And that's also why "THE POWERFUL FORCE OF PRAYER" is a must in our Christian walk with God.

This book is about how God took me from trials to different victories. How each person that reads this book will know by their Faith in God will take them from trials to victories too. Just trust in God, focus on God and He will bring you out protected, provided for and most of all to a higher level in Him. These lessons are for those that need guidance. We have too many people taking their own lives and God wants His children to know that He created them with gifts that could change the world, if they aren't here to do what they were sent here to do, their gifts are missing from the world. Only that person or people could do the mission that God sent them to do. So we all lose when people take their own lives. So, see the signs, pray, and talk to God that they don't take their own lives. We don't want anyone to not serve the world with their gifts. "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." (1 Peter 5:8) We give the adversary permission when we don't pay attention to sinful things that come our way. Even when we don't control our tongues when others talk about others. Put a filter in our mouths- Lord!. Do understand as you read each lesson, I keep each lesson as a lesson for me first to learn and hold onto, lest I forget what God has taught me. We are all still being worked on by the Holy Spirit. Sometimes, the simplest lessons are the hardest ones to teach. Life is very precious and we are all wrapped as a gift to this world. What we do with these gifts is a gift to the world and God. God, Our Father, gives us so many chances. We cannot even count them. Thank you Father for the chances. May we all see the lessons this book is teaching us.

 Hi there, NEIGHBOR! Do you want to know what is happening to your life? Well, let me tell you truth all about in this book! Satan is the destroyer. He is the one who comes "to steal and to kill and to destroy" and harass and discourage and tempt and everything else he can do against the human being that GOD has created. In this book is a collection of Bible verses showing that it is Satan who bring disease, death and destruction: "Jesus said the thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly (John 10:10) KJV. SATAN IS A LIAR Ye (you) are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. (John 8:44) King James Version. Then Satan is looking for you NOW!!! Are you sober? I mean not affected by alcohol, not drunk by sex, greed lust, hatred, racism or pride. You must be clearheaded and watchful. 1 Peter 5:8, KJV: Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: If you are tired of living this lifestyle. You must take SATAN to court, now through Jesus Christ!

This devotion was written to help with different areas of challenges we sometimes face in the workplace. We spend more time at work than with family and I do believe that if our minds are not guarded at all times, the "adversary, who roars about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour" can truly have a field day with us. When we have the constant awareness of the fact that while at work we must govern ourselves according to the Word, it keeps things in perspective. There are so many people working today that are very unhappy on the job. Whether it is you, your boss, the work load, the co-workers, or any other challenges, let us strive to have peace in the midst of any storm that arises and learn how to better handle the different challenges that come our way. Just think with me for a second all the different personalities together Monday through Friday, sometimes, not on one accord. As I grow in grace and the knowledge of God I have come to realize that ALL things (the good, the bad and the ugly) work together for good to those that love God and are the called, according to His purpose. You are on your job for a reason and a season and your due season will come, just hold on a little longer. God told us in Ecclesiastes 3:1 that "there is a time for everything under the sun."

While it's true the adversary of all that is good, righteous, and holy is making a lot of noise these days, it is also true you and I do not have to become his next meal. The apostle Peter wasn't trying to scare his readers when he wrote, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walks about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world" (1 Peter 5:8,9). At the same time, he wasn't stretching the truth about how serious and ruthless our adversary is. His objective was that we'd pay attention to his warning. Peter simply told the truth. There is a devil, he is a bully, he has an agenda, and you and I are his marked targets. Although we don't have to be afraid, we do need to be prepared.

The Bible has much to say about the ministry of angels. It tells us that there are angels assigned to us. In Psalm 91:11, the Bible says, 'For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.' The Word also states in Psalm 103:20, that these angels heed the voice of God's Word. There is also a demonic realm where Satan and his host of demons plot and plan to trap and take captive the body of Christ through strategically designed deceptions and temptations. God warns us in 1 Peter 5:8, 'Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.' Skandalon is a modern-day fictional story divinely inspired by God to expose the works of the enemy in the daily lives of believers. Follow a young couple, Zoe and Michael, as they walk through devastating circumstances in their lives, each handling tragedy differently. You'll discover how the angelic beings assigned to guard them are affected by their actions as well as the words they speak or, in some instances, don't speak. The traps and snares of the enemy are brought to light as the character's battle through adversity.

In the beginning, God said, "Let us make man in our own image, after our own likeness and let them rule over everything we have created." The question is, which part of a human being is made in the image of God? Some scholars feel that our reason, creativity, speech and self-determination are the image or nature of God. Man was created an intellectual, creative being, which is God's nature. The Devil is a strategist; the bible says he is like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. Satan's best weapon is making people believe that he does not exist. The Lord has not left us at the mercy of Satan and his demons; he is raising us into an army that will destroy Satan's prisons and let the captives go free. We are not fighting alone. Jesus fights alongside us. The battle for the mind is still going on today. Satan uses everything he can find to try to confuse, weaken and eventually destroy our minds. Don't give him your mind - stand up and fight.

"Our sworn enemy goes by many names. Scripture calls him our "adversary" who prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. He "doth seek to work us woe"--and our testimonies and lives hang in the balance. Yet Christians are often ignorant of his plans, power, and even presence, and are easily caught off guard. Are we taking Satan seriously? Do we know how to stand firm against the prince of this world? Here, respected pastor-scholars shine the light of Scripture on our ancient foe, identifying who he is, explaining how he operates, exposing his deceit, and celebrating his final demise. They will equip you to more fully understand the war we are engaged in and how you can "resist the devil" in the power of Christ"--From publisher's description.

THE ADVERSARY 1 Peter 5:8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Greetings. Often in this modern society, a heavy weight boxing match comes along and catches the public attention. What could be more exciting than to watch two guys try to kill each other? This spectacle is usually followed by both fighters: proclaiming themselves winners and hugging each other. The greatest battle we'll ever fight won't be fought in some ring but in our mind and there can be only one winner. 1 Corinthians 15:57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. This victory comes at a heavy price: your thinking or righteousness in this world. The world represents your mind in the Bible, not a physical place. 1 John 5:4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. You know you can overcome this world, when you no longer trust in your own devilish counsel or wisdom. Now you can be blessed.
