Stories of Holy Week and Easter G.P.
Putnam's Sons Books for Young Readers OH NO!!! You found The Worst Book in the Whole Entire World! Well, since you're already here I may as well tell you about it... Poor Nameless tries to explain to the reader why this book is simply the WORST book in the whole entire world. Will he succeed in his noble quest? Is he the reason this book is the worst?? Will it have a happy ending or the worst ending ever??? The Worst Book in the Whole Entire World is a humorous and witty tale for young and seasoned readers.

Whatever you do though, don't read it out loud! You may catch wind of these words: toot, stinky, booger, and booty. You've been warned, but you'll still want to see what happens next!

A Storybook for Advent Lion Children's Books

First published in Bob Hartman's imaginative collection of tales about angels (Angels, Angels, All Around) this is a compelling retelling of a familiar Bible story told from a new perspective; the sadness and joy of the first Easter as witnessed by two angels attendant at the Crucifixion and Resurrection. This newly illustrated edition presents Bob Hartman's moving text, which gets straight to the heart of Easter, with wonderfully evocative pictures that shimmer with mystery and miracle.

Benjamin's Box Holiday House

These three oversized picture books imaginatively retells bible stories from the Gospels. The stories are told in simple language and are ideal for reading aloud to a group. Captivating illustrations make the stories readily accessible to young children. Each book has its own supplementary StoryTeller's Kit filled with story-based activities, posters and cooperative games that help teachers, parents and day care providers turn the stories into rich learning experiences. Imaginatively retells the stories from the Gospels of Mark and John of the palm-celebrated arrival of Jesus to Jerusalem, his last supper with his disciples and his death and resurrection.

Peter's First Easter Lion Children's Books Houses are built with many different materials, and in many shapes and sizes. Step by step, this picture book explains how homes are built—from the architect's plans through the arrival of a happy family. The many processes of construction are explained with simple language and bright, clear illustrations, perfect for kids starting to wonder about how the world around them works. Many different careers—including carpenters, plumbers, electricians, and landscapers—are introduced, each doing their part to bring the picture wood-frame house to life. A great read for kids who love construction sites, or who can't get enough of Building a House by Byron Barton. According to The Washington Post, Gail Gibbons "has taught more preschoolers and early readers about the world than any other children's writerillustrator." Ms. Gibbons is the author of more than 100 books for young readers, including the bestselling titles From Seed to Plant and Monarch Butterfly. Her many honors include the Washington Post/Children's Book Guild Nonfiction Award and the NSTA Outstanding Science Trade Book Award.

Make Room has a lot to do with making space, opening up, emptying out, and creating room for new growth. The book has two aims. The first is to re-interpret the three traditional Lenten disciplines of prayer, fasting, and alms giving in a way that is meaningful, practical and accessible for children. The second is to root those practices in the larger story of the life and ministry of Jesus, so they aren't just activities or more things to do, but a part of a life of discipleship. Make Room is a positive presentation of Lent as a special time for following Jesus along his path of openness, hospitality, and of making known the expansive love of God.
